BLOWING ROCK WINTERFEST 2010

12TH ANNUAL CHILI COOK-OFF

Rules, Regulations, and Information

☪ Amateur chili entries are to be cooked using your own recipe, no specific ingredients required (there is no requirement regarding packaged or fresh ingredients).

☪ You may cook beef, turkey, vegetarian or any type of chili you would like, just make your best pot to compete for the $500 first prize.

☪ There are no electrical outlets available so it is preferred that you bring your chili hot and ready to the cookoff and keep it hot using a Coleman or camp stove. Absolutely no crockpots! Please inform us by checking the box on the application as to whether you will bring sternos or whether you will be able to provide your camp stove.

☪ Each chili entry gets admission for 2 cooks. Additional cooks may attend but will have to pay for a ticket to get in. Also, it will be very crowded behind the tables so please limit the number to 2 behind your space to be considerate of the other cooks.

☪ If you have more than one chili recipe you will need to fill out a separate application and pay a separate entry fee for each chili.

☪ Blowing Rock Winterfest will provide: A 4 ft. table space, serving cups, teaspoons, and napkins.

☪ Applicants are responsible for: Your biggest pot of heated chili, chaffers and sternos, All table decorations including signage (there will be a prize for best table decoration), server, serving utensils, and small fire extinguisher.

☪ Please try to arrive by the Blowing Rock School Gym, located on Morris Street, at 10am on Saturday morning, January 30. We will be having a chili cooks meeting at 10:30am to make sure everyone is on the same page.
